Elle est humble, aimante et évite les problèmes, toutefois, plus elle essaie d'éviter les problèmes, plus elle rencontre des défis et des obstacles. Bien qu'elle aime sa petite sœur, ses expériences révèlent clairement à quel point les jeunes frères et sœurs peuvent être ennuyeux. Dans ce livre, Lucy nous apprend que malgré son cœur palpitant et ses craintes, faire l'effort de sortir de sa zone de confort lui a permis de devenir un peu plus forte pour la prochaine bataille à laquelle elle devra faire face.

AN ECLIPSE OF HER MIND

WRITTEN BY DANIELLE PARCHMENT
ILLUSTRATED BY: RICHARD NATTOO
AGE RANGE: 12-18
PUBLISHED: OCTOBER, 2022

An Eclipse of Her Mind, highlights thoughts, feelings, or observations experienced by the Author Danielle Parchment. Literature is the channel through which we as individuals nourish our minds, learn, and make connections. A vital aspect that makes up who we are, is what we read.

The purpose of Eclipse of Her Mind is for readers to have a literary piece that gives the reader an insight into what it is to be inside a teenager's mind. As teenagers, we are often seen as moody, unbearable, and immature, which is generally true, but Eclipse of her Mind breaks down that stereotype and really gives the reader an eclipse of the thoughts experienced by a teenage girl. Ranging from feelings of love, disappointment, resentment, and grief, Eclipse of her Mind is a truly captivating work of poetry that will leave you wanting more.

POEM FROM AN ECLIPSE OF HER MIND

Her bright brown eyes pierce the sky.

Her beautiful smile can make anyone feel warm inside.

We are Beautiful Black Girls, Perfect in every way.

We are beautiful and elegant "Goddesses of the Earth," Gracious creations that were instilled with power and strength since their birth.

DANELLE PARCHMENT

The Creative: Author

My name is Danielle Alexandra Parchment. I am currently 13 years old. My family and I reside in Queens, New York. Poetry is my creative outlet, and so it is the medium through which I express myself, whether happy or sad. This book consists of poems written during my 7th and 8th-grade years. Among the things that I enjoy doing is being an advocate for the helpless. I have a strong passion and a heart of servanthood for empowering others. This has given birth to my mission: “Educating Girls in Impoverished Places.”

I am exceptionally mission-oriented. I always want to be a part of missions that seek to make provisions for hurricane/natural disaster victims, mental health support, homelessness, orphanage centers, and new student support.

I also love the Performing Arts, so I enjoy dancing, singing, acting, writing & reciting poetry, playing the violin & piano, debating, and public speaking. My parents refer to me as the outdoor kid who loves to play but also has cultivated a strong balance between work and play. I am also an Admission Ambassador and Peer Mentor at Buckley Country Day School. Besides being actively engaged in learning, serving/helping others gives me the greatest satisfaction in my learning community.

GABRIELLE PARCHMENT

The Creative: Author

My name is Gabrielle Elizabeth Parchment, and I was born in 2013. I live in Queens, New York, where I reside with my family. This book consists of stories and poems which were written during my 1st-grade year, and at that time, I was six years old. I love nature, and my outdoor activities and sceneries often inspire me before writing. So far, I have maintained a stellar academic record in school, and I enjoy my extracurricular activities, especially swimming and gaming.

I have a great relationship with my teachers and peers, and I am known for balancing work and playing very maturely. I love to spend time with my family, and my family means the world to me. As the youngest of three children, I feel safe, special, and spoilt as my brother and sister are significantly older, and they have a hedge of protection around me.
